On May 21, 2006, the offender was driving in Gibbsboro, New Jersey, when he was pulled over by a member of the Gibbsboro Police Department for a moving violation. The officer detected a strong odor of alcohol emanating from the vehicle. Kapral admitted to the officer that he had a "couple of drinks" earlier that evening, and he was subjected to, and subsequently failed several field sobriety tests. Kapral was arrested and charged with Driving While Intoxicated, Reckless Driving, and Speeding. Kapral was released on his own recognizance pending a hearing in Stratford Municipal Court, which is currently scheduled for June 15, 2006.

The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'The defendant shall refrain from the use of alcohol and shall submit to testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that the defendant submit to evaluation and treatment as directed by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by the rules of any program and remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.'

During the course of an adjustment session conducted on June 1, 2006, Kapral admitted that he was drinking alcohol on the night he was arrested and charged with the above offenses. Kapral conceded that his decision to drink alcohol is contrary to the special condition prohibiting him from using alcohol while on supervised release.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

No Court intervention is requested at this time. This officer will continue to track the status of the offender's charges and will re-address these infractions once the pending charges are adjudicated. He is currently participating in a substance abuse treatment program at Sodat, Camden, New Jersey, and he is being subjected to an enhanced reporting schedule with increased urine monitoring.
